

RULES FOR ALL CHALLENGE EVENTS

1. The local congregation's event coach or church coordinator will coordinate the judging of all Challenge Events. Those who judge the work will make every effort to:
 - A. Keep the standards high.
 - B. Make certain the student completes all work according to the event rules.
 - C. Make certain the student actually performed the work listed.
 - D. Make certain this work was done with only a reasonable amount of adult supervision.
 - E. Remember these are supposed to be challenges and not "gimmies."
 - F. Make certain the documentation is legible and understandable.
2. All events should be completed and judged PRIOR to Convention.
3. The Church Coordinator is to submit a single, completed Challenge Submission Form for each Challenge event to Awards by 6:10 PM Friday at Convention. (Challenge Events are not mailed prior to convention.)
4. Each individual award winner will receive an engraved plate for his/her participant's plaque.
5. Awards will be placed in congregational packets to be picked up by the Church Coordinator at the end of convention.
6. Participants must be registered in their respective events and send in the registration fee to Registration on or before the Registration Deadline, whether they will be attending the CTLTC Convention or not in attendance.
7. Church Coordinators will have until two weeks after the convention to apply for awards, corrections or updates. Any awards needed after this deadline will have to be secured by the Church Coordinator from a local business.

EVANGELISM CHALLENGE RULES (7-12 Grades)

PURPOSE: To encourage Christian young people to reach out and teach others the gospel of Christ. It is to promote the need of reaching out to the lost and bringing them to acknowledge of God's Word.

PROCESS: Each participant shall:

- Be involved in one or more of several evangelistic projects with those who are not New Testament Christians.
- Write a one-page report of the lessons they have learned from reaching out to others with the gospel.

The Church Coordinator shall:

- Read and follow Rules for All Challenge Events on Page 13 of manual.
- Register each challenge participant by grade division by Registration Deadline.
- Submit all Evangelism Challenge entries on the Evangelism Challenge Submission Form to Awards at Convention by 6:10 PM on Friday.

RULES:

1. Participation is for those in the 7th – 12th grades; any project may be done more than once per year.
2. When individual Bible studies are conducted, the participant must have an outline for study approved by the event coach before the actual study begins.
3. Materials must be Bible-based and evangelistic. The object is to teach and convert the lost to Christ.
4. Participants and event coaches will keep records of dates, materials used, and the participant's response to these evangelistic projects. Individual projects can be performed more than once. (A participant may have an "open Bible" study with 10 different non-Christians, for example).

SUGGESTED PROJECTS:

1. Conducting an in-home Bible study with a non-Christian (see rule 2).
2. Conducting a Bible study with a new convert (by the participant) on living the Christian life.
3. Completing a series of Bible correspondence courses with a non-Christian.
4. Being a participant in a mission trip.
5. Bringing at least 8 non-Christians with you to worship.
6. Conducting a weekly Bible study in your home for your peers (at least half of them non-Christian) for at least one month.
7. Being a part of a door-knocking team that works for one day to invite people to worship, a gospel meeting, VBS, or to participate in a Bible study.
8. Organizing or working on an evangelistic youth rally designed to reach area youth.
9. Making 4 visits in the homes of those who visit in your Bible class inviting them to return and study.
10. Being a part of the teaching team that works with a VBS reaching out to area youth.
11. A project designed by the church or the participant and approved by the church coordinator.

AWARDS:

The ultimate fruit of this work will be the adding of lost souls to God's kingdom. We can only sow and water; God will give the increase. But to encourage faithful sowing and watering, the following awards will be given:

Gold – 10 projects; Silver – 8 projects; Bronze – 6 projects
